COMMUNITY
UTILITY ASSISTANCE

We financially assist people from Cheyenne who are behind on their utility bills, are challenged to pay their bills, or are facing disconnection. We limit the assistance to $250 per year. An Irmgard Meyer grant has been disbursed this year. If you would like to assist with the requests we will receive through the end of year, you may donate to the Utilities Assistance Fund. Any amount is appreciated. We will seek a grant for 2025 assistance that will help with a large portion of next year's requests. Thank you.

The Church Office Is Closed at Noon on Fridays

Live-Streamed Services — For the Adults in Our

Worship Services: Since our services are live-streamed, there is a possibility you may be captured on the video we post to YouTube. By attending our services, as an adult, you automatically give permission to be on video. If you would like to attend worship services without appearing in any of the videos, you can escape the camera by sitting in the back section of the church.

Celebrants this Week:

Sharon Cicarelli, Karl Krieger, Cassandra Raybuck, Arn Lutz, Lola Brown, Satchel Finn, Eva Jeanne Holmes, Bob Mattson, Robert Shank, Guy Beardsley, Bill Lembke, Greg Dyekman, and Mike Kilpatrick.

The Chancel Flowers ...

are given in loving memory of Bob and Dolfe Van Alyne, by the Van Alyne family; and in loving memory of our parents, Bob and Loraine Westerfield and Russ and Emma Donnelly, by William and Ruth Westerfield.

Feeding the Community

Seeking Volunteers. Session approved the concept of using the downstairs Mission Center as a place to temporarily house out-of-towners who are here caring for loved ones at CRMC. Kevin Boyce or Marion Yoder would be glad to meet with you after the 10 a.m. service and answer any questions you may have about volunteering to serve as a host. (See the July 21 Flocknote for a summary of the program.)

Kick Off Sunday ~ September 8
You'll want to put this date on your calendar, in your planner, and on your phone!
Why? Because...

You are going to help us kick off a new program year!

 Activities and Games ~ Bounce House*

Come meet and learn about our ministries and the small groups available during the program year.
