

Little Free Food Pantry. The dedication of the pantry took place Sunday, March 10, and is ready to receive your gifts of food and personal care items. Thanks to the Men on a Mission, the pantry is installed on the corner of 22nd Street and Capitol for easy access. This is yet another great opportunity to share with others in our community the blessings that our gracious God has provided to us.

Below is a list of items you can drop off for our neighbors in need.

Travel Size:

Toothpaste/toothbrush/mouthwash
Deodorant
Shampoo/conditioner
Band aids
Hand-wipes
Disposable razors
Lotion/hand cream
Soap/body wash
Hand sanitizer

Food:

Snack packs of tuna/chicken crackers, peanut butter crackers
Individual power bars/candy bars/snack bars
Individual bags of chips
Water bottles, juice boxes/small juice cans
Peanut butter in small packets

Other Items:

Toilet paper
Small notebooks
Feminine hygiene products
Chap stick
Flashlight pens
Batteries – AAA or AA
Ink pens
Envelopes

Little Free Food Pantry. The dedication of the pantry took place Sunday, March 10, and is ready to receive your gifts of food and personal care items. Thanks to the Men on a Mission, the pantry is installed on the corner of 22nd Street and Capitol for easy access. This is yet another great opportunity to share with others in our community the blessings that our gracious God has provided to us.

Below is a list of items you can drop off for our neighbors in need.

Travel Size:

Toothpaste/toothbrush/mouthwash
Deodorant
Shampoo/conditioner
Bad aids
Hand-wipes
Disposable razors
Lotion/hand cream
Soap/body wash
Hand sanitizer

Food:

Snack packs of tuna/chicken crackers, peanut butter crackers
Individual power bars/candy bars/snack bars
Individual bags of chips
Water bottles, juice boxes/small juice cans
Peanut butter in small packets

Other Items:

Toilet paper
Small notebooks
Feminine hygiene products
Chap stick
Flashlight pens
Batteries – AAA or AA
Ink pens
Envelopes